"A Point Worth Studying."

Tiresome waiting for a custom Spring Overcoat to be made, isn't it? Not very sensible either, when you can get as good from us without waiting. Perhaps better, and always cheaper. Given good quality, economy is a point worth studying. You secure both when dealing with us, and better and finer this season than ever before. At both stores, $10 to $30.

AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

HER HUSBAND IS AT LIBERTY.

MRS. LEVY THOUGHT HE WAS KEPT FROM HER BY HIS FATHER.

Judge Clement, in the City Court, yesterday dismissed the writ of habeas corpus secured by Mrs. Kittle Levy, requiring her father-in-law, Moses Levy, to produce her husband, Sylvan Levy, in court, as she has not seen him for several weeks. It was shown that the young man is of full age, and is in the West with his personal liberty unrestrained. He is a Hebrew, and his wife is a Christian. At the hearing, Mrs. Louisa Stettin, a sister of Mrs. Levy, testified yesterday that she was present when the Rev. Mr. Wagner married her sister to Sylvan Levy. He asked her if she would take him with all his faults, and she said she would, and he agreed to take her with all her faults. They were married, and went away for four days on a trip, and then lived together for five weeks. On February 14, Moses Levy and his daughters represented to the young husband that his mother was exceedingly ill, and induced him to accompany them to see her. He did not return. When she went to his father's house she was told that he had gone West.

Moses Levy testified that he went to see his son on February 14, and saw the petitioner at her home. In her presence his son denied being married to her. He told his son to come home and settle his accounts, and that his mother was sick. Sylvan went with him, and the next day accompanied him to the Grand Central Station and bought a ticket for the West. On the way his son said to Senator McCarren that he was not married. The father did not know where his son was. He believed his son had collected $7,000 or $8,000 for him in the last year, and had not paid it over to him.

Judge Clement said he was satisfied that Mr. Levy had not murdered his son or put him in prison, and dismissed the writ. Counsel for the wife says he will sue the father for $25,000 as damages for the alienation of his son's affections from his wife.

INTERESTED IN MISSIONS.

The twenty-first annual meeting of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn will be held in the Noble street Presbyterian Church to-day. Mr. Darwin R. James, of the Home Board, is to lead the first morning meeting. Two addresses, one on "Alaska," by Mrs. Mary C. De Voe, and one on "Medical Missions," by Miss Mary P. Eddy, will be given in the morning. In the afternoon Mrs. J. F. Holcomb, Mrs. De Voe, Mrs. D. E. Finks and the Rev. Dr. J. D. Wells will speak. In the evening Mrs. J. F. Atkinson, Mrs. William Dimes, Jr., and Robert Speer, of the Foreign Board, will be the speakers.

TEMPERANCE WOMEN IN CONVENTION.

The Kings County Woman's Christian Temperance Union opened a two-days convention in the Hanson Place Baptist Church yesterday. It was the tenth annual convention of the body. Mrs. Louise Vanderhoff presided. Mrs. J. Brennan, the vice-president, gave the opening address. The annual report was read by Mrs. V. A. Lewis, recording secretary. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. M. J. Annable, showed a small balance in the treasury. Among the speakers were Mrs. C. H. Brundage, Mrs. H. S. Pritchard, Miss C. E. Collin, Mrs. A. F. Newton, Mrs. E. L. Wood and Mrs. Anna S. Reeves. The young women in the Union conducted the evening services, and Mrs. Emma L. Pettengill made an address. The election of officers will take place to-day.

SHOT HIMSELF AND WILL PROBABLY DIE.

George Wolfert, thirty-five years old, of Bushwick-ave. and Hart-st., attempted suicide yesterday afternoon by shooting himself in the left breast at the Peck Slip Hotel, in the Eastern District. The wound will probably prove fatal. Wolfert was taken to St. Catharine's Hospital. At the hospital last night it was said that he would probably die before morning. George H. Byer, a brother-in-law of Wolfert, lives at Broadway and South Ninth-st. He said he could give no reason for the attempt made by Wolfert to kill himself. He was unmarried.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

In the suit of Bernard Keegan, a brakeman, against the New Jersey Central Railroad Company to recover $50,000 as damages for the loss of a leg in switching cars in Jersey City, the jury before whom the case was tried in the United States Court gave a verdict yesterday awarding $25,000 to him. A motion was made for a new trial.

Joseph Cadley, a police officer in the Second District Civil Court and a brother of E. B. Cadley, clerk of the Board of Supervisors, died yesterday at his home, No. 23 Third-ave. He was fifty-one years old, and had been a policeman for sixteen years.

Daniel F. Lewis, president of the Brooklyn City Railroad Company, returned yesterday from his wedding trip, and heard the complaints of the new employees on the Flatbush-ave. line in regard to the number of trips they have to make with the trolley system. He promised to see that the causes for complaint were removed.

The Second Presbyterian Church congregation has voted to sell its property in Clinton-st., near Fulton-st., formerly occupied as a church edifice but now used for business purposes, for $200,000. The site and adjoining property will be used for the projected new hotel, which is to cost $500,000, and be twelve stories high with 450 rooms.

The Rev. John E. Fray, of the Richmond Hill Congregational Church, has accepted a call to the Duryea Presbyterian Church to succeed Dr. Samuel P. Halsey, who resigned last fall. Mr. Fray has been at Richmond Hill for three years.

The Rev. John C. Allen has tendered his resignation as pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, at Summer-ave. and Decatur-st., to take effect on June 1.
